The Career of Father Hyacinthe.

How His Eloquence Captivated the Citizens of Paris—The War Against Him.

[From the London Telegraph.]

Although still comparatively young, Pere Hyacinthe stands among the chief pulpit forces of the Romish Church. Joining the order of barefooted Carmelites, he speedily won distinction by his scholarship and his culture, no less than by his extraordinary power of speech. At an early age he promised to add a bright star to the galaxy of French pulpit eloquence. But, from the time of his first utterances, he was regarded with suspicious glances by leading dignitaries of Rome. He was seen to be tainted with Liberalism. His words had not that tone of absolute submission to the Holy See which is now coveted by the most powerful among the priests of France.
On France, almost as much as on Ireland, the Ultramontane party has laid its grasp. Much of the power which the Jesuits have more than once lost in that country they have won back. Such dioceses as that of Orleans are ruled with a rod of iron, in accordance with the dictates of the Ultramontane creed; and the prelates who represent the old Liberalism of France inspire in men like Bishop Dupanloup much the same hostility with which the extreme High Church dignitaries of England regard their extreme Broad Church rivals.

The Ultramontane party, however, have been forced to fight a hard battle with their Liberal foes. They have had to contend with a band of men to whom nature had given extraordinary intellectual gifts, and whose piety, it was impossible for the jealousy of orthodox itself to impugn. Such men as Lamennais, Lacordaire, and Montalembert, faced that they could bridge over the chasm between the theological creed of the fifteenth century and the political creed of the nineteenth. In the encounter Lamennais was so utterly overthrown by the members of his own church, that he cut loose the ties which bound him, not only to Rome, but to revealed religion itself.
Lacordaire died while the struggle was yet at its height; and Montale-mbert's record is yet to be written.
To the same band of enthusiasts, although he occupies a less exalted place, belongs the present Archbishop of Paris, Monseigneur Dar-boy. An ardent Liberal as well as an ardent Catholic, Monseigneur Darboy has more than once been the object of Papal suspicion, and has been forced to reaffirm his devotion to the Holy See. But his chief offense was the admission of Pere Hyacinthe to the Cathedral of Notre Dame. To that historic church the intellect and the religious fervor of Paris flocked when attracted by such eloquence as that of the barefooted Carmelite. And the eager crowd was not disappointed. Lettered and unlettered, academicians and epicureans felt the fascination of the brilliant preacher. After the great church had been filled in every part, a man of short stature, and singularly bright, prepossessing face, would ascend the pulpit and address the expectant multitude. His oratory was strikingly natural. It was very much like the best speaking of the forum transferred into the sanctuary, and made holy by the infusion of sacred themes. It was the reverse of ecclesiastical. About the Church the Father did not say much; about doctrines he said still less; and about the clergy he said little that was not a rebuke. On the other hand, he made the aisles of Notre Dame resound with the most uncompromising Liberalism. In words of burning eloquence he taught men that they owed duties to each other as citizens, and that as fathers of families they were dowered with rights which even the Church could not take away. The claim of the clergy to "direct" the conscience of the wife, and to set aside the authority of the husband, was a pretension which Pere Hyacinthe denounced with that peculiarly cutting, because personal eloquence, which men can wield when assailing the men of their own order. He asserted the right of the husband to be supreme in his own household, and the duty of the citizen to obey the laws of his own country. Unmoved by the threats of Rome he raised up that old banner of French Liberalism, on which was inscribed devotion to the family and to the nation. Without directly assailing the priestly pretensions of the Ultramontane party, he sat forth doctrines which made these pretensions null and void.

Hence the men of France listened to the French preacher with undiguised rapture. A religious creed which did not compel them to break off all visible connection with Rome, and yet left them masters in their own households and citizens of their own country, was the very thing for which they pined. On the other hand, the Ultramontane party of Paris were furious against the discourses of the Carmelite. All his eloquence denunciations of the vices which are preying on the life of France were powerless to still the fierce cry of heresy. The preacher was assailed with that cry; and at last, even the courageous Archbishop of Paris so far bent before the storm that he put an end to the series of Carmelite discourses, and invited the chief rival of Pere Hyacinthe to fill the pulpit of Notre Dame. The new preacher, Pere Felix, strove hard to undo the mischief wrought by his gifted predecessor. A Jesuit, and dowered with the graces of his own most accomplished order, he lent all the riches of his rhetoric to vilify Protestantism, and to preach the duty of uncompromising submission to Holy Church, as represented by its chief Bishop. But the effort was in vain. The echoes of Hyacinthe's eloquence still lingered on men's ears. At last, however, the words of calumny won over to the side of his foes the chief dignitary of his order, who had before encouraged the great preacher with loving words. In a letter to Hyacinthe the Father-General of the barefooted Carmelites blamed him for doing the very things which he had previously encouraged him to perform, and commanded him to use a language, or to preserve a silence, which would not be the loyal expression of conscience.

HOW THE WOMEN WORSHIPED A BISHOP.— S. Baring Gould, in his Curiosities of Olden Times, gives the following account of an altercation between Bishop Salazar, of Chiapa, and the women of his congregation:
"The women of Chiapa were so addicted to the use of chocolate that they would neither hear low mass, much less high mass, or a sermon, without drinking cups of steaming chocolate, and eating preserves, brought on in trays by servants, during the performance of Divine service, so that the voice of the preacher or the chant of the priest were drowned in the continual clatter of cups and clinks of spoons; beside, the floor, after service, was strewn with bon ton papers, and stained with splashes of the spilled beverage.
The Bishop preached lustily against the practice, but the women looked up at the pulpit with unimpassioned eyes, then wiped their lips, and put out their hands for some comfits.
The Bishop's voice thrilled shriller and louder—he looked like an apostle in his godly indignation. Crash!— down went a tray at the Cathedral door, and every one looked round to see whose cups were broken. 'What was the subject of the sermon?' asked masters of their apprentices every Sunday for the next month, and the ready answer came, 'Oh! chocolate again!' The good prelate was at last compelled to excommunicate the offenders; but more chocolate was drunk in the Cathedral of Chiapa than ever. Some of the canons and priests were then stationed at the Cathedral doors to stop the ingress of the servants with cups and chocolate-pots. They had received injunctions to remove the drinking and eating vessels, and suffer the servants to come empty-handed to church. A violent struggle ensued in the porch and all the women within rushed in a body to the doors, to assist the domestics. The poor clerks were utterly routed and thrown in confusion down the steps, while, with that odious, well-known cli-k, clink, the trays came in as before. Soldiers were employed, but all to no purpose.
Finally, some of the women put an end to the controversy by poisoning the Bishop, and chocolate was copiously drunk at his funeral."

SECRETARY OF WAR.—Wm. W.
Belknap, of Iowa, has received the appointment of Secretary of War in place of Rawlins, dec'd. He entered the army as an officer in the 13th Iowa volunteers, and during the war became commander of a division.
Afterward he became Adjutant-General on Sherman's staff, and was mustered out at the expiration of his term of service. He is a lawyer by profession, and is at present Collector of Internal Revenue for the Keokuk district.

LAST Friday, was the anniversary of the battle of Perryville, fought on the 8th day of October,

CINCINNATI SOUTHERN R. R.

Progress of the Survey from Covington to Lexington.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, held on Saturday morning, Wm.
A. Gunn, Esq., Engineer in charge of surveys, submitted the following preliminary report:

"Miles Greenwood, Esq., President of Board Trustees C. S. Railway."
"DEAR SIR—I have the honor to report that the two corps of Engineers, in charge of the preliminary surveys of the line of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, from Covington to Lexington, by way of Williamstown and Georgetown, met on the 30th ultimo, having run between Walton and Lexington, 62.32 miles.
The distance from Covington to Walton is 18.16 miles, making the distance from Covington to Lexington 80.48 miles. This will be reduced by corrections, in a few places, to eighty miles, or a fraction less. The maximum grade required is 52.8 feet per mile, and this is absolutely necessary at but one place only, viz: Eagle Creek, and for a distance of two and a half miles, though its use in a few places, for small distances, will save expense in grading. A large part of the line will have level or very light grades. No sharp curvatures are required, and I think none of less than one thousand four hundred and thirty three feet radius is necessary. There will be required two tunnels of three hundred feet each, and three bridges over small creeks, and one trestle over a valley near Eagle Creek.
There are several deep ravines which could be crossed more cheaply by trestles, but in my opinion, they may all be filled at reasonable cost.— About one-third of the line has grading of a pretty heavy character, and the rest will be only moderately expensive.

"This, of course, applies to the line from Walton to Lexington.
Respectfully submitted,
"W. A. GUNN,
Chief Engineer C. S. R. R."

The Trustees directed the two corps to separate. One party, in charge of Capt. W. C. Crozer, will survey the route from Paris, via Winchester, Richmond, &c. The other, in charge of Maj. F. S. Wallace, will commence at Georgetown, thence to Versailles, Harrodsburg, and southwardly to intersect the various routes that have already been surveyed from Danville to Knoxville, Chat-anooga and Nashville. This party will be aided by Col. Patterson, of Scott county, Ky., former Engineer of the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad.

Statutory Liens in Deeds—Recital of Price Unpaid.

Keith's administrator et al. vs. Wolf et al.
From Keokuk, Reversed Oct. 1, 1869.
Robertson, Judge.

In 1852 the Western Baptist Institute sold lots in Covington to the Covington and Lexington Railroad Company for $5,000 in stock in the road, and $2,500 in the bonds of the company. This suit was brought by the holders of the bonds, asserting a statutory lien as resulting from the recital in the deed, showing, as they claim, that a certain portion of the consideration was unpaid. The recital in the deed is as follows: "for, and in consideration of, $5,000 in the stock of said company, and the further sum of $2,500 in the bonds of the said company, by the party of the first part, in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged."

The court below adjudged that a lien was reserved by the recital in the deed.

Held.—The recital in the deed does not show that any portion of the consideration, nor, if any, precisely how much, was unpaid. The stock being an investment, and a vendible commodity, was indisputably a payment of $5,000. Then, why should not the company's printed bonds, payable in ten years, with interest coupons attached, be equally considered an investment and a vendible commodity? Why are they not as much so as the five-twenty bonds of the United States? The only difference between them is, that one is issued by a political, and the other by a civil corporation, and all used for the same current purposes.— Surely the recital as to these company bonds could not give certain notice that they had not been, like the stock, accepted as payment; on the contrary, both their character and the letter of the recital import payment. And, if needful, this construction is fortified by the intrinsic incredibility that the company, in such a contract, would guarantee its bonds by an extraordinary encumbrance which might embarrass its road and disturb public convenience.

Judge J. H. Holliday having resigned the position, Capt. Thos. F.
Hargis has been elected Judge of Nicholas county. Capt. Hargis was lately the editor of the Carlisle Mercury. He made a good editor and will doubtless make a good Judge.

An Awful Lie.

The Chicago Tribune has a correspondent traveling in Europe, who is unquestionably the biggest liar on the face of the earth. In a letter from Prague he says, speaking of a bath he had taken at the Rhine Falls:

"After I had come out, dressed myself, and was walking leisurely toward the Schloss Laufen, I noticed two young women in a single garment on the eve of a plunge. One of them went quietly into the water, but the other, more from mischief than modesty, looked archly over her naked shoulder as if to attract my attention. Then she ran behind a tree not half so broad as herself, and peered round its trunk in a way that might have been inviting to men less severely moulded. The exercise she took picturesquely disarranged her very scanty wardrobe, and her roughish eyes twinkled at what she conceived to be fine sport. She was quite pretty; the day was charming, and I had nothing in the world to do.
If I had been Rubens I should have sketched the nymph. Her hair was daxen and her eyes were blue, like the mistress he is always putting in his pictures, though I am glad to say she was not half so flashy. But I did not give way to my artistic feelings on the occasion. I merely walked on to admire once more the beautiful falls. I heard the girls laughing and splashing in the water.
I did not look back. I remembered what happened to Lot's wife and to Orpheus."

He did not look back? If he didn't it was because the parent of the girls was there with a double-barreled shot gun, threatening to shoot him on the spot if he did!

Abandoning the Party.

Hon. O. B. Browning, Secretary of the Interior under Lincoln, has accepted the Democratic nomination for delegate to the Illinois Constitutional Convention. He has come out in full sympathy with the Democracy, and is satisfied that the true interests of the country demand the defeat of the Jacobins. In this opinion he will find thousands of his late Republican friends concurring; and their number is daily increasing.
He says: "I am opposed—decidedly, heartily, and defiantly opposed—to striking the word 'white' out of the constitution" of Illinois, and does not hesitate to say that the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, if ratified, will be inconsistent with the other provisions, and with nearly all of them, to which it is an amendment, and necessarily, therefore, void—as much so as if it were a proposition to set aside and abolish the Constitution of the United States. When such men as Judge Browning find it necessary to abandon the Abolitionists and destructives; it is evident there is nothing in that party which honest and patriotic citizens can consensu-ously support.—Ohio Crisis.

A great sensation was created in Lexington on the 9th inst., by the extraordinary performance of Capt Henry Buford's celebrated three year old trotting horse Blackwood, in the trot for a premium on the last day of the Fair. He made the mile in 2.31, which is eight—some say six seconds faster than ever performed by a three year old. It is reported that Capt. Buford has refused fifty thousand dollars for him.
We suppose he will hold him for the bid of Bonner, who has offered $100,000 for any horse which will beat Dexter's time; and if he does not go off with the lung fever, like Herzog, meets with no accident, and holds his own till he gets a year or two older, and Bonner does not die and keeps his offer standing, his chances for the outside figure are very good. We hope he will get it.— Frankfort Yeoman.

During the progress of the Indiana State Fair, at Indianapolis, one day week before last, a terrible accident occurred, resulting in the almost instant death of 29 persons and about 75 wounded. It occurred by the explosion of the boiler attached to a steam saw mill, which had just been fired up for a test of speed with another sawing machine.
There was an immense crowd on the ground at the time of the accident.
Many of the bodies of the killed were horribly mutilated and burned.
A little babe was killed in its father's arms; the father escaped without injury.

A gasoline lamp in the Singer Sewing Machine office, in Lexington exploded on the 24th ult., but did no harm, save the burning of a ladies hands while trying to smother the flames.

The right to run a ferry from Ludlow to Cincinnati has been granted to Mrs. Helen Ludlow. The application for this privilege was sharply resisted by the city of Covington, and after the decision of the County Court in favor of Mrs. Ludlow the contestants made a motion for an appeal, which was granted.

M. Jameson, grocer, on Main Street has just received a large and extensive stock of fresh groceries. He says he sells cheap for cash. Call and see him.

A new generation from "Barrett."

The old negro, "Jerry," who has been in jail for some months under a charge of burning J. C. S. Blackburi's barn, was last week tried in the circuit court of Woodford county, and was discharged.

Georgetown Court Day Sales as reported by A. W. Lydick, auctioneer, about 300 head of cattle on the market, mostly common stock, selling at fair prices. 2 year olds about 5 1/2 cts per lb. gross. Mules sold at good prices—plugs of horses in demand, and at fair prices. No sale for fine horses. Hogs sought for at good prices. Most sales made on time. Feeding good, with large crowd in town.

T. J. Campbell sold his house and lot, on Walnut street, last week, to Wm. Hampton, (colored,) for $2,000. And Dr. Baltzelle, sold Mr. C., a lot 50 feet front and 170 feet deep for $200.

Mr. H. Clay Magee has laid on our table an ear of corn which contains 1,260 kernels. This is the largest corn we have seen this year.

On Tuesday evening last, a heavy snow fell in this region. Winter, cold and bleak, is upon us now. People who have plenty of wood, and blessed with every comfort, which makes life agreeable, should not forget the poor.

John Curry, the colored boy, who killed his father, Nick Broadwell, and for which he was sent to the Penitentiary, died there about two weeks ago of small pox. He should have died by the rope.

The revival at the Baptist Church at Frankfort, still continues. On the 10th inst., there were thirty additions to the church, twenty-four of whom were baptized, and six joined by letter. The revival is still progressing and will probably continue throughout the present week.

A MAN KILLED.—On last Sunday, October 17th, Bob Shannon shot and killed James Wells. The ball passed through his body just below the left nipple. These men were at the residence Arch Bonds, about one mile south of Leesburg, in Harrison county. They quarrelled over a Watch. This is the second murder in this county within forty days. It is necessary that the officers of the law should be more vigilant or we fear the devil will get us.

Barrett's spreads its name.

"Wig-makers" don't like "Barrett."

The Henderson Reporter says: "So far as we have learned very little tobacco in this section has been materially injured by frost. We have seen cut stalks measuring to tip of leaves about six feet, some of the leaves being 22 inches in width. Cuba tobacco may be finer, but it wouldn't take many leaves of the Kentucky weed to cover the "Gem of the Antilles."

Mrs. Porter, of Covington, has been appointed Postmistress at Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Porter is the widow of Judge Bruce Porter, and daughter of the Hon. James T. Morehead, who served Kentucky as a Legislator, a Governor, and a Senator in the Congress of the United States. There were numerous applicants for the position; and through the influence of the father of the President, the office was given to Mrs. Porter. She is said to be a very handsome, intelligent widow. The disappointed aspirants ought to strike for clerkships—for it wouldn't go hard to "serve under such a chief."

For the Cynthia News. BAPTIST CHURCH CONSTITUTED.—A new Baptist interest has been recognised about three miles East of Berry's Station, of great promise. Saturday the 9th of October, a council composed of Elders J. R. Barbee, L. H. Denman and J. N. Barbee, licentiate, with a number of brethren from the nearest Baptist Church, met with about forty-five brethren and sisters of vicinity of Mt. Nebo, Harrison county, Ky., and after due deliberation proceeded to recognise them as a Church, adopting as their name the Providence Baptist Church, Harrison county, Ky.

Distiller's Convention. We learn from a circular letter now being passed among Distillers, that they will hold a Convention at Lexington very soon. We copy the following from the circular:

"It seems desirable that all the Distillers of Kentucky should convene and exchange social and friendly communication—to discuss the present condition, and deliberate upon the future prospects of the trade, and promote and further, by all honorable means, the interest of those engaged in the distillation of Bourbon Whisky. While the prospects of the business at this time are not as flattering as they should be, nevertheless, it is believed that a full attendance of all the Distillers in the State, accompanied with unity, enterprise, and co-operation,—the convention can be made to accomplish infinite results.

"In accordance with the request and authority, I have selected, the "Phoenix Hotel," Lexington, Ky., as the point, and Wednesday, November 3rd, 1869, as the day and date for such Convention.

Respectfully,
JOHN W. MEGIBBEN,
Acting Secretary,

CHURCH DISTURBERS, AND ROWDIES. For some eighteen months passed, there has been an itching disposition on the part of a few white people and black ones too, fraught with whisky and malice, to disturb and annoy Divine Worship, in this city. It is a source of continual reference by our clergymen; and last Monday a number were brought before His Honor, the Mayor. This time it was black people disturbing the colored church and behaving badly generally. The Mayor has no power to impose a severe punishment upon the disturbers of the peace, but it is his duty to hold them by heavy bail or imprisonment until the sitting of the Criminal Court, when the facts and the prisoner should be sent to the Grand Jury. When once in the hands of the police jury of the county, there will hardly be any more Church disturbances in this city again soon.—They can impose a fine of $500 and imprison for 12 months. They should attend to their business. One example will be sufficient, at least for ten years, and the sooner the all powerful arm of the law is laid upon such offenders the better.

LAND SALE.—Mr. John M. Burgh has sold his farm of 260 acres, near Newtown, to Wm. W. Ferguson, of Bourbon county, for $100 per acre. Mrs. C. P. Talbot, of Bourbon, has purchased of Joseph Hawkins, the Dr. James Offutt farm, of 144 acres, in the same neighborhood for $105 per acre.

On Monday Mr. M. N. Peak sold his farm of 167 acres, on North Elk horn, to Dr. J. R. Adams, of this place, at $60 per acre.—Georgetown Times.

"Barrett" a public benefactor.

We clip the following items from the Warsaw News: The Gallatin Circuit Court adjourned on the 28th of September, after a tedious session of eight days. The case of the Commonwealth vs. Murphy, by change of venue from Carroll county, was continued for the defendant. The grand jury found twenty-six true bills, one of which was for hog stealing, and another for a crime committed by a negro, too vile to be written.

Madam Rumor has it, that "somebody," from Warsaw, is going down to Carroll county next week, to engage in a prize fight, or get married, we can't, for our lives, remember which.

MARRIED.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, by Elder D. W. Case, on Thursday, October 14th, 1869, Mr. Arthur Fennel, to Miss Mary F. Sims, daughter of James Sims, all of Harrison county.

At 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the Merchants Hotel, Cincinnati, was the scene of a gay and happy party. A. W. Lydick was united to Miss Maggie Redmon; J. H. Ewalt to Miss Anna Offutt, and J. W. Lair to Miss Lizzie Redmon. May Happiness attend them through life.

Near Georgetown, Ky., on Tuesday, Oct. 12, 1869, at the residence of Mr. John Hayden, uncle of the bride, Mr. S. A. White to Miss Annie P. Oldham, daughter of Mr. John Oldham, dec'd., of Jessamine county.

On the 12th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Graham, of Nicholas county, and Miss Mollie Regan, of Montgomery county.

On the 15th inst., at Mr. Staves, in this county, by the Rev. Mr. Lancaster, Mr. Carr to Miss Maggie Carpenter.

DIED.

Died, at the residence of Jas. W. Nutter, of Fayette county, on the 14th inst., of Typhoid Pneumonia, Miss ELLA O. LYDICK, youngest daughter of A. W. Lydick.

Died, near Mayslick, Ky., October 5th, 1869, Mr. JOHN ADAMS, aged 40 years, after a long and protracted illness.

Died, at the residence of her husband, in Leesburg, Ky., on the 15th inst., Mrs. JANE HART, wife of Wm. Hart, aged 66 years.

Mrs. H. was a very estimable lady—an affectionate wife, fond mother, and an exemplary christian. She leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was the daughter of Geo. Chowning, Esq., who emigrated from Virginia to this State when Mrs. H. was but 7 years old. She is the sister of John Chowning, Esq., of Pendleton county.

A WATCH, pair of Blankets, Quilt or Shawl for One Dollar appears almost impossible, but such may be had and hundreds of other useful articles by patronizing PARKER & CO.'S, "ONE DOLLAR SALE."

Their system of doing business has been examined by authorities and a decision rendered from the Internal Revenue department at Washington, dated Nov. 4th, 1868, declaring their business perfectly fair and legitimate and entirely different from the numerous enterprises. Of course all do not get watches, blankets, &c., for One Dollar, but in every large lot, one of these articles are sold for One Dollar, as an inducement, and some member of the club has the chance of obtaining it. A New feature introduced by the enterprising firm, is to pay their agents, in either cash or merchandise, and to pre-pay the express charges. No better opportunity can be offered to Ladies or Gentlemen, having leisure time, than to form a club for this firm. Read their advertisement in another column, and send for catalogue.

LET US PROTECT OURSELVES.

The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them, to some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies, by taking an ANTI-BILIOUS ADVANCE; in other words by fortifying the system with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the maladies that have ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. It not only restores the system to its normal condition, but it also restores the system to its normal condition, but it also restores the system to its normal condition.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained; It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which is the source of all disease. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure—

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Bilious and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, &c.

A medical expert, holding honorable collegiate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office parlors. Associated with him are three consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public FREE OF CHARGE.

This opportunity is offered by no other institution in the country.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. Where convenient, remittances should be made by draft or DRAFTS OR POST-OFFICE ORDERS.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED—AND THE NEW

Universal Clothes Wringer.

Improved with Rowell's Patent Double Cog-wheels and the Patent Stop, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We do our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the situation."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth a dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Currier.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you your Machine, after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashion ed wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Bond, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catharine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $14. Extra Wringer $8, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

CORNER

HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorates broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Water, Heaves, Colic, Distemper, Fevers, Pains, Loss of Appetite, and VITAL ENERGY, &c. It also improves the wind, increases the appetite, and makes the animal sleek and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable shodden into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Bellow Fever, &c. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk, and cream twenty percent, and make the butter firm and sweet.

In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, cleanses their hide, and makes them arrive much faster.

In all diseases of the horse, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of feed, the above disease will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.
